

The Usual Place

Your order supports our work!

Your booking matters more than you think...
all the money we make is used to cover
business costs in support of our aims.

Our core work is to provide training, education and employability skills for young people with additional support needs. Young people will be preparing your food alongside skilled mentors and this provides excellent experience in a real working environment.

External catering orders are accepted within the context of this wider work and the availability of resources in order for us to deliver an excellent service to you every time.
